

EXOTICS 2009-2010

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Exotics — What's New in 2009 - 2010

Princess® sails to the world's exotic locales — with escapes visiting everywhere from Asia, Australia & New Zealand and South America to Antarctica, the South Pacific, Hawaii and Tahiti to India and Africa. For our 2009 and 2010 season, we have eight ships sailing on some of our best worldwide itineraries ever.

MORE ASIA SAILINGS. Ocean Princess® sails on three new 14- to 16-day Southeast Asia, China and Japan itineraries, with overnight calls in Hong Kong or Bangkok. And Diamond Princess® returns to the region on her 16-day fall and spring Southeast Asia & China cruise — the best of Asia between Bangkok and Beijing.

SPARKLING SHIPS — LARGE AND SMALL. Tahitian Princess® will be renamed Ocean Princess, and along with Pacific Princess® and Royal Princess®, offer numerous small ship sailings to places like Asia, India and South America. These deluxe vessels carry about 680 mostly adult guests, who will delight in the camaraderie of fellow like-minded travelers and the relaxed, unhurried ambience. Spectacular ships like Star Princess® hosts 2,600 guests to the South Pacific and Golden Princess® also welcomes 2,600 to Hawaii. Sun Princess® and Dawn Princess® combine year-round Australia-based cruising to Australia, New Zealand, South Pacific and Asia.

NEW PORTS OF CALL. Around the world, Princess will be visiting intriguing new ports for the first time — places like Muscat, the cosmopolitan capital of Oman; Yangon in the country of Myanmar; Qingdao, China, with its parks, beaches and unique architecture; and Japan's dynamic city of Fukuoka.

FAVORITES RETURN. Many of our best-loved exotic itineraries are back in 2009/2010 — voyages like our Australia & New Zealand cruises on Diamond Princess; 14-day Hawaiian Islands sailings departing roundtrip from Los Angeles on Golden Princess®; and 10-day Tahiti & Polynesia sailings on Pacific Princess®. Exciting South America adventures include enhanced 14-day Amazon River voyages on Royal Princess®, incredibly scenic Cape Horn voyages and Antarctica journeys on Star Princess, and more.
