When she launches in 2010, Allure of the Seas<sup>SM</sup> will depart from her homeport of Port Everglades in Fort Lauderdale and alternate a seven-night Eastern and Western Caribbean itinerary. Both itineraries will feature three days at sea for guests to enjoy all the revolutionary onboard amenities found in the seven "neighborhoods" that comprise an Oasis-class ship, including Central Park<sup>SM</sup>, Boardwalk<sup>SM</sup>, Royal Promenade, Pool and Sports Zone, Vitality at Sea Spa and Fitness Center, Entertainment Place and the kid-friendly Youth Zone.

On the Eastern Caribbean itinerary, Allure of the Seas<sup>SM</sup> will call at St. Thomas (Charlotte Amalie), St. Maarten (Philipsburg), and Nassau, Bahamas. The ship will call at Falmouth, Jamaica; Cozumel, Mexico; and Labadee®, Royal Caribbean's private beach paradise on the northern coast of Haiti, for the Western Caribbean itinerary.

An architectural marvel at sea, Allure of the Seas<sup>SM</sup> will span 16 decks, encompass 220,000 gross registered tons (GRT), carry 5,400 guests at double occupancy and feature 2,700 staterooms.

This is your chance to see more, do more and say "Why Not" to more adventures than ever before.

There's only one word to describe this ship - incredible.
